

Your obvious lack of respect of the american public is unbelievable and appalling and by not holding public hearings on the proposed changes to broadcast ownership is an affront to freedom of speech and the us constitution as a whole. (waiting to the last possibly legal minute to hold public hearings is appalling as well.)